

Student and Academic Services

Introduction to Education Practice: A Programme for Research Students

17th - 19th Nov 2014 : Location: The Octagon, Sir Michael Cobham Library

Programme aims:

To provide an introduction to learning and teaching for research students which will prepare them to undertake their teaching responsibilities effectively and with confidence.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of programme, the research students should be able to:

- Identify the key factors relating to the facilitation of learning
- Assess students' work utilising methods which are valid, fair and reliable.
- Plan a teaching session which aligns with learning outcomes
- Identify some of the ways in which technologies may be used to enhance learning and teaching

Monday 17th Nov : 0930 – 1615: Octagon

0930 Introductions (Jon Williams)
1000 The student experience of learning (Gail Thomas)
1045 Coffee
1100 The student experience of learning (Gail Thomas)
1200 Service excellence (Susanne Clarke)
1230 Lunch
1330 Planning student centred learning (Jon Williams)
1420 Tea
1435 Planning student centred learning (Jon Williams)
1515 The potential of learning technology (myBU and TurnItIn) (Kathryn Cheshir)
1600 Briefing for microteaching task (Jon Williams)
1615 Close

Tuesday 18th Nov : 0930 – 1600: Octagon

0930 Working in groups (Gail Thomas)
1030 Coffee
1045 Working in groups (Gail Thomas)
1130 Equality and diversity (James Palfreman-Kay)
1230 Lunch
1330 Assessment of learning (Jon Williams)
1430 Tea
1445 Assessment of learning (Jon Williams)
1545 Q+A for microteaching (Jon Williams)
1600 Close

Wednesday 19th Nov : 0930 - 1300: TBC

0930 Microteaching activity. Participants will form small groups of 5- 6. Each person will give a short presentation for analysis and feedback from the rest of the group (Jon Williams, Gail Thomas, Rick Stafford, TBC).
1230 Feedback and evaluation of the course.
13.00 Close

The Octagon is located on the first floor of the Sir Michael Cobham Library Talbot Campus. From the main entrance take the stairs to your right and then the first door on the left at the top of the stairs. The Octagon will be to your right.

Programme organiser: Dr Jonathan Williams (CEL) ext 62162
Bookings : Staff Development