

You said, we did ...

Following the outcomes of the results of the last PRES survey, as a university we have ...

Streamlined the expected turnaround times for feedback, so that you can normally expect a response within 3 weeks

Run additional RDP sessions on careers development to highlight different careers available and explore the options compatible with individuals' needs

77% are confident of completing on time

Expanded the material provided on Brightspace, building it into an information hub for the postgraduate research community

92% say their supervisor has the skills and subject knowledge to support their research

Launched a New PGR Checklist allowing you to ensure you have considered all the different elements to get you started on your research journey

78% are satisfied with the overall experience of their research degree

Introduced a PGR Support area on Brightspace to promote PGR mental health and wellbeing

92% say their skills in applying research methodologies, tools and techniques have developed during their programme

Set up a Training Needs Analysis template to help you recognise your strengths and also identify your development needs

Clarified the role of the PGR Leads in departments, to provide greater consistency and guidance for expectations of supervision

Created a Researcher Development Programme steering group to advise on the strategic direction of PGR skills development

Organised and run a very successful Annual Postgraduate Research Conference online

90% say their skills in critically analysing and evaluation of findings have developed during their programme

Run re-orientation events for those PGRs preparing for their Major Reviews and final Viva Voce examinations