AIMS OF THE DOCUMENT

The aims of this document are to:

- define the structure of the programme;
- specify the programme award titles;
- identify programme and level learning outcomes;
- articulate the regulations governing the awards defined within the document.

AIMS OF THE PROGRAMME

The BA (Hons) Media Production degree aims to produce graduates who engage with the world with interest, insight, intellectual curiosity and ethical awareness. These attributes will allow them to work as creative, collaborative, reflective, ethical and confident practitioners in order to contribute to and shape the creative media industries.

This key aim is underpinned by the following aims:

- To provide students with ongoing opportunities to produce a range of media productions to professional standards;
- To encourage students to tell authentic, diverse stories with social impact which speak to a wide audience;
- To provide students with a critical understanding of current issues and opportunities at the forefront of the creative media industries;
- To equip students with the intellectual tools and techniques required to deal with issues systematically, creatively, sustainably and ethically;
- To develop highly employable graduates with the capacity to contribute to and compete in a fast-changing media landscape as creative, reflective and ethical practitioners.

ALIGNMENT WITH THE UNIVERSITY'S STRATEGIC PLAN

This programme is informed by and aligned with the BU 2025 strategic plan and fusion ethos to inspire learning, advance knowledge and enrich society through the fusion of education, research and practice. The BU 2025 values of excellence, inclusivity, creativity and responsibility are woven throughout the programme.

LEARNING HOURS AND ASSESSMENT

Bournemouth University taught programmes are composed of units of study, which are assigned a credit value indicating the amount of learning undertaken. The minimum credit value of a unit is normally 20 credits, above which credit values normally increase at 20-point intervals. 20 credits is the equivalent of 200 study hours required of the student, including lectures, seminars, assessment and independent study. 20 University credits are equivalent to 10 European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) credits.

The assessment workload for a unit should consider the total time devoted to study, including the assessment workload (i.e. formative and summative assessment) and the taught elements and independent study workload (i.e. lectures, seminars, preparatory work, practical activities, reading, critical reflection, practice).

Assessment per 20 credit unit should normally consist of 3,000 words or equivalent. Dissertations and Level 6 and 7 Final Projects are distinct from other assessment types. The word count for these assignments is 5,000 words per 20 credits, recognising that undertaking an in-depth piece of original research as the capstone to a degree is pedagogically sound.

STAFF DELIVERING THE PROGRAMME

Students will usually be taught by a combination of senior academic staff with others who have relevant expertise including – where appropriate according to the content of the unit – academic staff, qualified professional practitioners, demonstrators/technicians and research students.

ADMISSION REGULATIONS

Please refer to the course website for further information regarding admission regulations for this programme: Courses | Bournemouth University

PROGRESSION ROUTES

Students who have successfully completed the Foundation in Media and Communication at Bournemouth University International College with a Pass, and IELTS at 6.5 with no lower than 6 in each separate sub-element; will be automatically accepted for entry to the BA (Hons) Media Production at Level 4.

In order to take advantage of exciting new approaches to learning and teaching, as well as developments in industry, the current, approved Articulation route for this programme may be subject to change. Where this happens, students will be informed and supported by the Faculty as early as possible.

ASSESSMENT REGULATIONS

The regulations for this programme follow the University's standard assessment regulations.

WORK BASED LEARNING (WBL) AND PLACEMENT ELEMENTS

Work placements are compulsory on the BA Media Production degree. Students may opt to complete a one-year (30 week) sandwich placement, or a 20 day 'short placement'. The work placement typically takes place between Level 5 and Level 6. Those students who successfully complete the 30-week sandwich placement will be eligible for the award of full-time sandwich degree. Placements are not credit bearing and are not required for the award of intermediate qualifications.
