Programme Specification - Section 1

Year 3/4/Level 6

Students must choose from Option Pathway A or B. They cannot choose units from a combination of Option Pathways A and B.

Option Pathway A is designed for students who are not intending a future career as a Solicitor, for those who are undecided about their future career or do not require any specific preparatory learning for the external Solicitors Qualifying Examination. Placement is optional on Pathway A.

Option Pathway B is designed for students who are intending a future career as a Solicitor in England and Wales. The teaching and learning on this pathway aims to prepare students for the external Solicitors Qualifying Examination, Part 1 assessments. Placement is optional on Pathway B.

Option Pathway A

Students are required to complete a core Legal Research Project typically offered in Semester 1 or 2 and five additional optional units.

Students must undertake their Legal Research Project on a topic relevant to law. The Legal Research Project unit provides students with the opportunity to reflect upon and undertake subject matter that is related to any relevant work-based learning experience.

Options are dependent on which semester units are delivered, and it is possible that not all options will run each year. This will be dependent on the option choices students make.

Programme Specification - Section 1

Option Pathway B

The teaching and learning on this Legal Practice pathway aims to prepare students for the external Solicitors Qualifying Examination, Part 1 assessments.

Students must have completed at least 200 law unit credits (120 at Level 4 and at least 80 credits at level 5) on a LLB (Hons) course before entry onto this pathway. Students are not normally allowed to enter this pathway unless they have successfully completed all of the Foundations of Law subjects at levels 4 and 5*.

Students must undertake their Legal Research Project in accordance with the Legal Research Project unit specification. This unit addresses the requirements of the Solicitors Qualifying Examination, Part 1 assessment on the Principles of Professional Conduct, Public and Administrative Law, and the Legal Systems of England and Wales. Students are normally expected to reflect upon some element of prior work-based learning within the unit.

(*As defined in the Joint Statement 1999 of the Law Society and the General Council of the Bar, and the Academic Stage Handbook of the Solicitors Regulation Authority and the Bar Standards Board).

AIMS OF THE DOCUMENT

The aims of this document are to:

- define the structure of the programme;
- specify the programme award titles;
- identify programme and level learning outcomes;
- articulate the regulations governing the awards defined within the document.

AIMS OF THE PROGRAMME

This programme aims to develop graduates who:

- have the necessary legal knowledge and skills base to complete the academic stage of legal training;
- have the ability to appreciate complex texts and assimilate complex information, deal with multi-faceted problems;
- can demonstrate knowledge, understanding and critical awareness of theories, principles and values of law;
- have intellectual independence to undertake self-directed legal research in locating and applying sources of law;
- have highly-developed interpersonal skills and able to communicate both orally and in writing;
- are able to manage their own personal development and lifelong learning;
- demonstrate the law student's skills and qualities of mind in section 2.4 of the QAA Subject Benchmark Statement 2015;
- are able to progress to the external Solicitors Qualifying Examination, Part 1 Assessments where required.

ALIGNMENT WITH THE UNIVERSITY'S STRATEGIC PLAN

This programme aligns with Bournemouth University's new Strategic Vision (BU 2025) of inspiring learning, advancing knowledge and enriching society. It provides our students with an outstanding legal education which is informed by the Department's research and prepares students for work in the legal professions or other graduate employment. It provides students with an opportunity to progress directly to the Solicitors Qualifying Examination, Part 1 assessments.

The Faculty of Media and Communication delivery planning supports teaching which benefits from research of international excellence and expertise in professional practice to enable the delivery of research and practice led and informed teaching.

LEARNING HOURS AND ASSESSMENT

Bournemouth University taught programmes are composed of units of study, which are assigned a credit value indicating the amount of learning undertaken. The minimum credit value of a unit is normally 20 credits, above which credit values normally increase at 20-point intervals. 20 credits is the equivalent of 200 study hours required of the student, including lectures, seminars, assessment and independent study. 20 University credits are equivalent to 10 European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) credits.

As a general rule, time devoted to assessment should normally represent approximately 25% of the student learning time for a unit (i.e. 50 hours for a 20-credit unit), leaving the rest for specific programme-related activities, including lectures, seminars, workshops, preparatory work, practical activities, reading, critical reflection and independent learning.

STAFF DELIVERING THE PROGRAMME

Students will usually be taught by a combination of senior academic staff with others who have relevant expertise including – where appropriate according to the content of the unit – academic staff, qualified professional practitioners, demonstrators/technicians and research students.

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES – AND HOW THE PROGRAMME ENABLES STUDENTS TO ACHIEVE AND DEMONSTRATE THE INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES

ADMISSION REGULATIONS

The regulations for this programme are the University's Standard Undergraduate Admission Regulations.

Applicants from Bournemouth University International College programmes which have approved articulation routes must meet the minimum entry requirements in terms of course average and English requirements as stipulated by Bournemouth University.

However, these regulations must be interpreted (and disapplied if necessary) in order to ensure the status of the degree programme as a Qualifying Law Degree. The Solicitors' Regulation Authority and Bar Standards Board have very clear requirements for a Qualifying Law Degree. Relevant provisions which must be taken into account include those relating to the content of the Academic Stage and the Credit Transfer Rules.

ASSESSMENT REGULATIONS

The regulations for this programme are the University Standard Undergraduate Assessment Regulations to be found at: <https://intranetsp.bournemouth.ac.uk/Documents/arpp61.aspx>.

However, exceptions have been approved for the following units which form part of the LLB (Hons) Law and cover the foundation subjects for a Qualifying Law Degree (QLD):

Level 4	Level 5
Legal Skills and Systems Law of Obligations 1 Constitutional and EU Law Property Law Human Rights Law Criminal Law	Law of Trusts and Estates Law of Obligations 2 Practical Administrative Law

The exceptions detailed below have been approved to align with requirements for Qualifying Law Degree (QLD), as per the Joint Statement on the Academic Stage of Training issued by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA) and the Bar Standards Board (BSB).

Exception 1: Compensation

Compensation may be applied to one and only one of the foundation subjects. Such a decision to compensate a subject may be taken only if the following requirements are satisfied:

- There are exceptional circumstances in the student's case that are likely to have impacted on the student's performance;
- The mark actually attained by the student in the subject to be compensated is not less than 35%;
- There is evidence of the student's academic strength across the entire degree programme.

Note on registration periods

Additionally, it is recognised that the SRA sets the period of registration at a maximum of 6 years for full time, sandwich and part time modes of study. Where this differs from BU regulations, the Assessment Board may adjust the period of registration for affected students as per paragraph 5.2 of the University's Standard Undergraduate Assessment Regulations.

WORK BASED LEARNING (WBL) AND PLACEMENT ELEMENTS

Optional placement in the professions, industry, business or in a placement relevant to law, politics, history or media which is broadly defined to include political parties, charities, NGOs, public relations departments, lobbying and campaigning groups, radio stations, local newspapers, internet news providers, and activists websites. Exemption is possible for those who have comparable work experience. 30 weeks minimum comparable work or study abroad can also meet the placement criteria.
